

The Power of Participation

Here are seven important ways for you to network with and learn from your fellow REALTORS®, participate in the Marin Association of REALTORS®, and put your expertise to work for Marin's real estate community. Sign up by January 1, 2008 to be considered for the following committees and discover for yourself the power of participation. Please check the box of the committee you wish to serve on, and fax this form to 507-1031. You will be contacted by the committee chair.

- Community Service
Helps MAR find ways for members to give back to the community through a variety of worthwhile projects and activities. For example, the committee has organized events such as Day at the Races, Giants Games, food drives and more to help support local charities.
- Education
Supervises MAR University, which provides and promotes a variety of seminars and workshops to help boost the effectiveness, skills and professionalism of REALTORS®.
- Governmental Affairs
Advises MAR about positions to take on a wide range of local issues and proposed legislation that impact REALTORS®. This panel has been involved in many important issues, including repeal of a point-of-sale toilet retrofit ordinance, advocacy of building permit amnesty programs, and workforce housing.
- * Marketing/Membership
Generates ideas and activities to promote the importance of working with REALTORS®, attract new members, and publicize the work and accomplishments of MAR. Helps review and process new member applications.
- Technology
Seeks to improve productivity of members and enhance the quality of client services; evaluates, selects and advocates new tech related training and products for REALTORS®.
- * Ethics & Dispute Resolution
This committee provides mediation and grievance resolution services to MAR members. Panel members must complete a professional standards training course.
- * Budget and Finance
Oversees the association's annual budget and recommends how MAR's funds should be invested.
